THE RECORD

"I record none but the hours of sunshine"

The pages which follow record the history of the "Class of '41" and their companion classes from the first day spent in school in 1929 through the commencement exercises. They record the trials and tribulations, successes and failures, and ambitions and aspirations of the group of young men and women who leave school this year to face the world. But above all, they record twelve of the happiest years in our lives, the memory of which will always serve as a source of inspiration and satisfaction to us.

We have appropriately chosen the sun dial as the theme of this year-book. The twelve hours on its face correspond to the twelve years we have spent in school. The sun dial records only the hours during the day when the sun is casting its radiance upon the face of the earth. At night it has no value since there is no light. Similarly, the time we have spent in school has been a time of enlightenment. We must not, however, let this stop now. The sun never sets on the realm of education. We must go on gaining knowledge and education, for if this process ceases, we will die intellectually. For a person who is intellectually dead, life holds nothing.

As we look back over our years at Wellington, we see a record of time well spent. We see many cheerful, pleasant hours of sunshine and enlightenment which have served to make our lives more complete.

Indeed, most clear among our recollection is the sun dial; for us it has served well, marking twelve of the finest years of our lives.

ADMINISTRATION

Ralph D. Purdy, our new executive, smilingly greets you from his desk in the main office. As general supervisor of Wellington's seven-hundred-fifty pupils and thirty teachers, he endeavors to put into practice a philosophy of democracy, which recognizes the needs, abilities, and interests of each individual.

Pupil guidance plays an important part in this program. Throughout the year, the superintendent has interviewed and counseled with all seniors and with numerous other students. An attempt is made, as the photo at top left shows, to furnish information concerning colleges and vocations, and to aid in plans for life work. Shown here is a senior office assistant, who, with other commercial students, has received some practical office experience during the year.

Familiar to all are the faces of D. Glenn Swanger and Sarah B. Huntridge, who supervise grades 10-12 and 7-9, respectively. Here the problems of students and teachers, the bugaboos of attendance and scholastic records are met and solved with geniality and understanding.

From lost mittens to choosing a vocation, the offices meet the problems of the school with the tools shown in the last picture—a little ink for keeping records, a calendar for keeping time, books for keeping facts at hand, and a guiding hand to put all tools to the wisest use.

TO THE FUTURE

The time has come when we must stand,
Before the future's beckoning hand,
When we shall face a strange new world
With Banners courageously unfurled.
We started school twelve years ago;
The time passed ceaselessly and slow
But with it came a shining ray
To guide us through our life each day.
To our Alma Mater we bid farewell,
But in our hearts her memory will dwell.
She will lead us down the road of "Success,"
And past the lane called "Idleness."
We fear not streams which brawl most loud,
And loudest to a doubting crowd.
Along their course, they're often shallow,
And only the coward seeks to follow.
We leave our comrades tried and true,
And seek to build our lives anew.
In sorrow, grief, or bleak despair,
We'll find all solace in our prayer.
We do not ask that life shall be
Forever care and sorrow free;
We ask but faith to stand before
What'ere the future has in store.

GRADUATES OF 1941

As the Senior Class graduates this year, it faces a world torn by war and strife. The future is uncertain. If our country enters this war, it will change the lives of all of us. Yet, it is an ambitious group of young men and women who will proudly step forward to receive their diplomas on the night of June 5. Regardless of the situation in which they find themselves, they are determined to succeed.

GRADUATION SONG

Lois Breyley      Graduation Song      Mary Ellen Hoffman

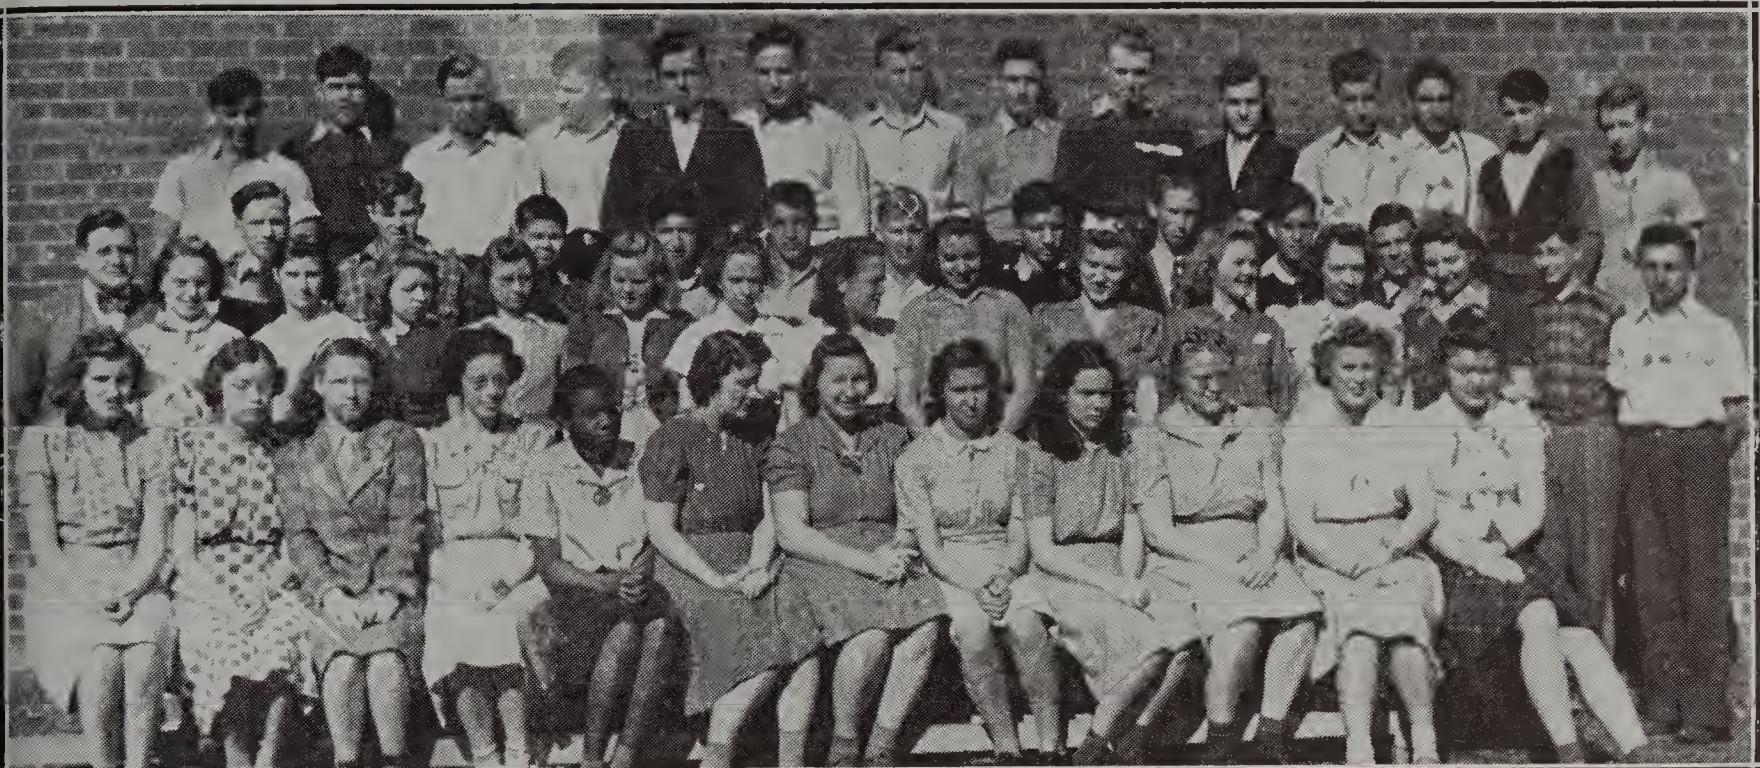

We have reached the ending of our high school days;
All of our good times are things of the past.
To our Alma Mater we sing a song of praise,
For now, on new adventure our destinies we cast.

Our teachers' efforts fill us with deep gratitude,
And their lessons we will ne'er forget.
"To find a way or make one" is the motto we've pursued,
We hope we haven't failed to live up to it as yet.

Leaving cherished memories behind us,
We of Forty-One say au revoir.
Each is proud to be a Wellington Alumnus,
And each will strive to do good both near and afar.

SOPHOMORES

President ..... Richard Buswell
 Vice-President ..... Wallace Gallatin
 Secretary-Treasurer ..... Ernestine Strandborg

The present Sophomore class of seventy-six members is the largest in the school. Becoming adjusted to the environment of Senior High occupied most of the time of the Sophomores. The class motto: "Cooperation is our Salvation" reflects the spirit of this group. Their colors are green and gold; the yellow carnation is the class flower. Their school mates highly recommend the ability of the Sophomores.

FRESHMEN

President ..... Edith Barnes
 Vice-President ..... Earl Piper
 Secretary ..... LaDonna Mills
 Treasurer ..... Robert McQuate

The class party at the end of the year was the biggest event for the Freshmen. This aspiring class now looks forward to entering Senior High next fall. They have left an admirable record behind them and intend to maintain it. The motto which inspires them is "Forward Ever, Backward Never;" the class flower is the yellow rose; the colors are crimson and gold.

CLASS OF '41

FIRST HOUR: We begin with the following charter members: Clarence Barbor, Ford Bassett, Lyle Clark, Albert Clodwick, Phyllis Coffin, Margaret Eibner, Russell Jamyson, Laura McConnell, Theresa Marley, Chester Martin, Ethlyn Newberger, Gladys Oney, Marolyn Pitts, Norman Rogers, Anne Saporito, Evelyn Smith, and Frederick White.

SECOND HOUR: We advance further along the trail of learning. This year we had two new students—June Carpenter and Ray Fortney.

THIRD HOUR: The shadow grows larger as we indulge in our first year of Geography and English.

FOURTH HOUR: The same old gang is back again. We had several teachers this year after the death of Miss McKittrick. We finished the greater part of the year with Miss White.

FIFTH HOUR: Under the patient guidance of Miss Whitbeck, we gave a Thanksgiving play for the sixth grade. We picked up Lillian Davis and Jack Rudolph along the way.

SIXTH HOUR: Being the oldest on the playground, we felt quite proud this year. We got our first taste of history under the guidance of Miss Schott. Ruth Cordray, William Hart, and Elizabeth Pitts joined the class.

SEVENTH HOUR: A mile-stone in our young lives was our entrance into Junior High under the guidance of Miss Huntridge. Keith Preston, Lois Breyley, Elaine Perry, and Don Park entered our class.

EIGHTH HOUR: Being able to smile at the blunders of the seventh graders, we are a little surer of ourselves. Patricia Hopkins, Richard Avery, Ethel Wait, and Edith Campbell joined our ranks.

NINTH HOUR: We are grown up now, as we are the oldest ones in Junior High. Our new members this year are Bernice Barber, Donna Rogers, Allan Lamb, and Lawrence Thudium from Huntington, and Viola Ward from Sullivan. We had a Hard-times party as our first social function of the class.

TENTH HOUR: We were allowed seats in study hall this year and are once more the "babies." Mary Ellen Hoffman and Don Larabee joined the class, Ray Fortney re-entered from Orrville, and Phyllis Coffin came back after a rest at Pleasant View Sanatorium. During the year one of our members Claude Sheldon, lost his life when he was struck by lightning.

ELEVENTH HOUR: We devoted the entire year to earning money for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet, which took place on May 10. A nautical air prevailed throughout this event. One of the most difficult tasks which we undertook to raise money, was the serving of a dinner at a music contest. The boys donned aprons and proved themselves a great help. We gave the Seniors a run for their money in the annual color-fights. Bob Stewart was our only new entrant.

TWELFTH HOUR: Now, there is no shadow on the sundial; we are at the high point in our lives. The long-talked of "Senior Privileges" are no more. (Juniors have them all.) This year Florence Griffith and Mary Marlette joined our ranks. As in the past, we published the annual, had our pictures taken, picked out invitations, and are now ready to pass on as alumni of W. H. S. We thank the Juniors for their enjoyable Junior-Senior Dinner-Dance on May 9. Class Day was May 27, and Baccalaureate on June 1. On June 5 at Commencement, we received the first leather-bound diplomas in the history of Wellington High School.

Gaining the right with two other Class C orchestras to represent Ohio at the Regional Music Contest at Flint, Michigan is the happy culmination of the Senior Orchestra's efforts this year.

Besides playing for the numerous school functions, the members of the orchestra have contributed their part in bringing the County Music Contest Award (Class C) to the school for the third consecutive year. This year they won by the largest margin of all.

Continuing on their path of "Superior," they competed at the District Contest at Bellevue,

April 5, and again at the State Finals in Columbus on April 19. In both of these events they were "tops," and we are proud to know that we have one of the three best Class C orchestras in the entire state.

Several ensembles of the orchestra have also won state recognition, the string quartet (3 times regional contestants,) the drum trio (Regional 1940,) the brass quintet, and Mary Ellen Hoffman, clarinet soloist. May we wish them and the orchestra, continued success in their endeavors.

We see the band formed into a large "W" at the half of the football games. Besides playing for the athletic events, the band participated in the dedication of the War Memorial.

In the County Music Contest the Band received the only "Superior Plus" given during the contest. Under the able direction of Laura McConnell, the band had a busy Decoration Day playing for the local services and for those of several of the surrounding communities.

The Junior Orchestra, which is the foundation for our Senior Orchestra, is composed of students ranging from the fifth grade to the ninth grade. This group had a very successful year including a rating of "Superior" at the County Contest at Clearview.

SPORTS REVIEW

This group of boys represented Wellington High School in sports during the 1940-1941 school year. They are truly all-around sportsmen as most of them participated in all three sports—football, basketball and baseball.

FOOTBALL: The 1940 Dukes played a hard schedule losing only three of eight games. Tops in performances this year was the Amherst struggle, which the Dukes won 13-0 at Amherst. It destroyed the "Amherst Jinx." McKisson got away for 75 yards for the first touchdown and left-end, Beard, scored the other on a pass interception.

The Vermilion game was a dogfight ending in a 6-6 tie. Center Weber's sensational block of a last minute field goal attempt by Vermilion saved the ball game.

The best of the losing games was the battle at Medina at which the undefeated league champions, Medina, won a hair-raiser, 14-6. Wellington threw away three other scoring opportunities by being penalized for being offsides inside the enemy 5 yard line. A strong line blocked well for a fast backfield.

Since the only regulars to leave are Robert Weber, Keith Preston, Richard Markham, and Lyle Clark, indications for a very strong 1941 team are in evidence,

Stellar performances were turned in by the following lettermen, of which the first eleven named are the starting line-up:

Roscoe Beard, Paul Marshall, Warren Green, Robert Weber, Richard Markham, Keith Preston, Robert Cassell, Lyle Clark, Russell McKisson, Tony Marley, John Barson, Charles Cassell, Alvin Hannum, Leon Clark, Leon Dagnan, Roland Handley. Managers were Chester Martin and Harold Hazlett.

Russell McKisson, powerful running back and John Barson, star plunger and passer, were elected 1941 Co-Captains.

BASEBALL

The 1941 Baseball team should be a fairly strong one. Last year's strong battery of Charles Cassell and Roy Rucker has departed and new men must be developed. Leon Clark, Roland Handley, and Walter Hyde will return to the field. All are lettermen. Outfielders returning are John Barson, Robert Cassell and Tony Marley, who may operate at first base this year. If the pitching and catching develops as expected, the Dukes may be a winning combination.

BASKETBALL

The 1940-41 Basketball season was distinctly a success. The Dukes operated often with four sophomores, both as starters and occasionally as substitutes. In the line-up a junior, Lloyd Buckley, also played often and capably. The Sophomores were Leon Clark, Roscoe Beard, Leon Dagnan, and Wallace Gallatin.

The Dukes broke even in basketball, defeating every league team except Clearview, the league champion. Medina was defeated once.

The best performances were in the home games with New London, Amherst, and mighty Vermilion. All these games were won by last half rallies on the part of the Dukes, who finished strongly. The only other team to defeat Vermilion was Clearview.

The best losing performances were against Clearview who pulled out a 31-26 score to avoid defeat narrowly. The Amherst Jinx took another rude jolt when the Dukes edged the Comets 25-24 in January. The Comets got even later by defeating Wellington in February.

The Dukes were the surprise of the N. O. L. season and amazed even their most ardent admirers by their inspired play.

The Reserves also performed nobly and turned in the best Reserve record in years.

Varsity Lettermen

Lyle Clark, Wallace Gallatin, Leon Dagnan, Leon Clark, Roscoe Beard, Roland Handley, Robert Weber, Lloyd Buckley.

Reserve Lettermen

ALLIED YOUTH

On Thursday, April 24, 1941, the 178th Charter of Allied Youth of America was granted to this branch in Wellington High School by Roy Breg, the National Executive Chairman. This makes our branch in Wellington the newest school organization. It is composed of about thirty members who have consented to stand on this platform:

"We stand for the liberation through education of the individual and society from the handicaps of beverage alcohol."

This means simply, that this organization is a group purely for the study by means of a scientific survey of the effects obtained upon the individual from alcoholic beverages.

The organization is sponsored by Mr. Purdy, and the officers are: Charles Willard, President, Mary Ellen Hoffman, Vice-President and Ruth Cordray, Secretary and Treasurer.

CLASS OF 1941 MAKES WAY IN WORLD

BASSETT TESTS STRATOLINER

Ford Bassett, known to his friends as "Tailspin," yesterday completed the first hop of his flight around the globe in the new T. W. A. Stratoliner. The hostess on this inaugural flight is another local personage, Ethlyn Newberger.

HEADS PENSACOLA GROUND CREW

Keith Preston last week attained his life long ambition when he received his certificate of Master Aeronautical Mechanic at Pensacola. This new office places him in charge of the ground crew at this naval air base.

LOCAL BOY CRASHES HOLLYWOOD

Slim Jones—Succeeds Oliver Hardy

Success overnight was the fortune of Slim Jones, formerly a resident of Wellington, Ohio. He is better known to local residents as Chester Martin. Having spent seven years as an extra, he has finally realized his ambition. At 3:00 P. M. yesterday he signed a contract which will virtually make him the successor to Babe Hardy.

LARABEE'S CASINO

Come in and see the "Jitterbug Jamboree," starring Anne Saporito and Theresa Marley. 9th and Chestnut, Ashland, Ohio.

BACKSTAGE GLIMPSES

Lillian Davis is starring in the hit, "The Old Maid's Paradise" or "Fifty Million Husbands Can't Be Wrong," currently showing at the Hanna Theater.

Elizabeth and Marolyn Pitts are singing on Broadway in the revival of "Alexander's Ragtime Band."

Edith Campbell is dancing in the Vogue Room of the Hotel Hollenden.

STRANGE VOCATIONS

Viola Ward is busting bronchos for Gene Autry. Donna Rogers is a lipstick demonstrator in Macy's basement.

Ethyl Wait is a snake charmer in Jack Rudolph's traveling medicine show now performing at Litchfield.

Bob Weber is testing parachutes for the Army.

Elaine Perry is the featured lady, wrestler of Bud Handley's Sportsman Show.

NEW PROFESSOR AT BUSH COLLEGE

Breyley Heads Music Department

Lois Breyley, graduate of Bowling Green University, has been named the new Head of the Department of Music at Bush College. She succeeds the late Prof. Walter Damrosh, well known musician. Miss Breyley states that she intends to introduce the new American mode of music in place of the European style at Bush College.

NEWCOMERS IN MUSIC

Gladys Oney, a newcomer in the radio music field has succeeded Kate Smith on the Krunch-Wunchy Program.

Ruth Cordray's Orchestra known from coast to coast as Ruth's Rhythm Rustlers has a new red hot clarinetist, Mary Ellen Hoffman, better known as "Red."

Richard Avery is Kay Kyser's new announcer.

SAFETY COUNCIL HEAD NAMED

Russ Jameyson has just been promoted from Jimmy Lynch's Daredevil Drivers to the post as Head of the Automotive Safety-Council of Pittsfield.

ROGERS SELLS STORE

Norman Rogers, proprietor of the Rogers' Variety Store has sold out, he announced this morning. He has accepted a position as supervisor in one of the Kresge's Chicago stores. The new owner of the Rogers' store is Bob Hardman, who will put in a chain branch of his Tid Bit Bakery.

RIFLE PRODUCTION STEPPED UP

Springfield Plants Boom

Lyle Clark, executive at the Springfield Armory, announced today that production of the new army rifles has doubled since the first of the year. At the present rate our national defense production will soon equal that of Switzerland.

LOCAL NEWS

"Stub" Barbor and Ray Fortney, operators of the Westlake Drive-In-Theater announce that only romances will be featured on Sunday evenings after June 15.

At the last meeting of the town council, the constable, Bill Hart and Al Clodwick, were voted a raise in salary.

Phyllis Coffin, the new lady assistant at the Y. B. Alive Funeral Home, spent the weekend at a Funeral Director's Conference at Brighton.

Laura McConnell, the Receptionist at Joe's Barbecue in the heart of Rochester, announces that they will soon install roadside service.

June Carpenter has taken over the Chatham School of Occupational Therapy, where she will teach muscle-bound fighters how to grow cauliflower ears.

Margaret Eibner and Evelyn Smith have just been employed as secretaries to Lawrence Thudium, new owner of the "You Gottem, We Gettum" Exterminating Company.

Bob Stewart and Don Park of the famous Park and Stewart Dairy Farm, located between Spencer and Chatham, have been appointed to the Advisory Board of the State Dept. of Agriculture.

Pat Hopkins, head nurse at the Faus Memorial Hospital spent the weekend in Cleveland.

After all these years the "Parson" is still coming to see Florence Griffith.

TREASURY BALANCES BUDGET

Timely Advice

United States Treasury issued a bulletin today stating that the budget has at last been balanced. The new assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Fred White, C. P. A., advanced the theory that the reason for our excess debt lay in the fact that there were too many government employees and too much fishing off Navy vessels. He advised that a third of the employees be dismissed and the Pork Barrel be dipped into less frequently.

FLASH!!!

SAME OLD STORY

Litchfield, Ohio—The Democratic Convention unanimously nominated F. D. Roosevelt for the 8th consecutive time yesterday afternoon. Although only about three fourths of the 473 Democrats in the United States were present, the enthusiasm was nevertheless evident. Mr. Roosevelt, who last served as president in 1945, predicted a clean sweep of Medina County. Don Park, Democratic campaign manager, who milks the public as well as his cows, was also optimistic.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1941, of the High School of Wellington, County of Lorain, and state of Ohio, being of sound mind do set forth this, our last will and testament, hereby, revoking and annulling any and all other wills made by us heretofore.

FIRST: Our will is that all expenses of cremation and burial services be taken care of as soon as possible after our decease.

SECOND: We bequeath in our turn as follows:

GENERAL DISPOSALS TO THE JUNIORS

1. To the Juniors we say about "Senior Privileges," "We didn't receive any. We didn't gain any. Therefore, we can't leave any."

TO THE SOPHOMORES

2. We bequeath to the Sophomores the secret of our efficiency in studies. To them we also will our method of skipping school. No need to leave this to the Juniors.

TO THE FRESHMEN

3. Upon the Freshmen we bestow permanent seats in Main Study Hall.

TO THE FACULTY

4. To the Faculty we leave the hope that the the following Senior Classes are not so obnoxious as this one.

PERSONAL DISPOSALS

1. Ruth Cordray wills to Allen Carter her technique in upsetting the whole study hall by sneezing. He needs to be a little more boisterous.

2. Ray Fortney and Clarence Barbor leave their prison walk to Bob Cope and "Doc" Hyde.

3. Laura McConnell gladly wills her blushes to Jeanne Gibbins. Jeanne looks nice in red.

4. Gladys Oney relinquishes her slimness in form to Dot Deiterich. Gladys says to eat Rye Krisp.

5. Robert Hardman leaves his curly hair to Ivan Smith. Bob certainly doesn't want it.

6. Theresa Marley also wills her hair to a Junior, Mary Witbeck. It will go so well with her big, brown eyes.

7. Norman Rogers gives his knack for getting kicked out of four classes and remaining in school to anyone else who thinks he can do it.

8. Fred White passes on his height to the future basketball teams. That's all the teams lack.

9. Elaine Perry bequeaths to Tony Marley the privilege of wearing out the new rug in Mr. Swanger's office. She's already gotten rid of two.

10. Lyle Clark transfers his nickname, "Twitchy," to his brother. Maybe Leon can knock off the Jr. when Lyle has graduated.

11. Lillian Davis gives her argumentative powers to stall off Civics tests to Betty Jean Wiles. Betty Jean has already saved the class from several history tests.

12. Patricia Hopkins leaves her pug nose to Janet Olsen. It really gets 'em. Janet needs a little more work on hers to make it turn up.

13. Mary Marlette and Viola Ward will their classy clothes to Evelyn Saxe. Evelyn already has a good start.

14. Lawrence Thudium hands over his Gene Autry manner to Warren Green. Even now Warren has his red Cowboy shirt.

15. Chester Martin turns over his job as manager of all athletics and also a steady place in Glee Club to Bud Willard.

16. Ethlyn Newberger says that what little she has left, she'd better take with her.

HI - TIMES SUN

17. Lois Breyley bequeaths her talent for hooking football heroes to Elsie (who's already got one).

18. Roland Handley wills his long shots in basketball games at the appropriate moment to 'Gene Buckley. We'll really need 'em.

19. Evelyn Smith, Margaret Eibner, and Anne Saporito give their beautiful voices in glee club to Dot Norton, Peg Bohlen, and Ireta Page. They have a little different style.

20. Richard Avery leaves his studious nature to Merle Baumgardner. We hope that Merle doesn't get sidetracked like Dick has.

21. Mary Ellen Hoffman transfers two things to Louise Harris, her red hair and her inability to get corny jokes. Louise has to have them diagrammed too.

22. Jack Rudolph hands over his ideas for designing the annual cover to the artist of next year's class. We hope they can even come close to ours.

23. June Carpenter wills her facility for getting caught chewing gum in orchestra to anybody who tries it.

24. Elizabeth Pitts leaves her speedy conversation to Dorigene Moore. The southern accent should sound better than ever speeded up a little.

25. Florence Griffith bequeaths her ability to interview teachers and get away with it to Beverly Baker. Beverly seems to be able to skip any classes.

26. Russell Jameyson decided he liked his Civics too well to part with it, so he wouldn't leave it to anyone.

27. Ford Bassett gives his technical knowledge of motors to Charles Bors. He wants it.

28. Marolyn Pitts wills her place in the string quartette to Ruth Dunford.

29. Albert Clodwick and William Hart leave their tardiness to "Speed" Cassell and Harold Miller.

30. Don Park bequeaths his unnoticed wit (especially in Physics Class) to Jill Grissinger who has a little of her own.

31. Robert Stewart wills his shyness and unobstrusiveness in all matters to Bob Foultnier. Bob blushes while he talks to girls, too.

32. Don Larabee leaves his dancing to the Juniors. They can all use it at the Prom.

33. Edith Campbell and Ethel Waite give their quietness to Raymond Haynes. Maybe that will tone him down a little.

34. Phyllis Coffin transfers her ability for being witty with the customers at Gill's to Betty Whitney.

35. Robert Weber relinquishes his sleepiness in study halls to Russ McKisson who never wants to study anyway.

36. Donna Rogers bequeaths her pleasing personality to John Barson. He hasn't fought with anyone yet. He's too cool, calm and collected.

In testimony whereof, we have set our hand to this our last will and testament at Wellington High School this twenty-seventh day of May in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-one.

The Class of 1941

Per Ethlyn Newberger

IT DID NOT MERELY "HAPPEN"

The people who hold good positions and who are successful, did not get where they are by luck or chance. They planned and worked and prepared. The properly trained person always wins. Get your Business or Secretarial training in
